

MASTER MIND

The Power of a Mindset

Introduction:

Deep inside each of us is a longing for a better, a brighter and a more meaningful story. However, what happens when our thinking becomes incarcerated by our hurts, habits or hang-ups? The good news is that faith always possesses the last word. In the end, we can only change our lives if we engage the keys to changing our mindsets.

Scriptures:

Romans 12:1-2-TPT

Luke 4:27-NKJV

2Kings 5:1-14-NKJV

Discussion Questions:

1. Pastor Mitchell shared the illustration of the African Impala as an example of being limited by a mindset. Share an example of how you have dealt with a mindset that limited your life.
2. Why is our mindset important in our lives?
3. Read the story of Naaman the Syrian. What are the personal lessons that you take from the story?
4. Like so many of us, Naaman almost missed his miracle because of his expectations. What are some practical ways in which we can surrender or expectations to God?
5. Why is this process so vital to spiritual formation?

Moving Forward:

- What lies must be confronted?
- What expectations must be released?
- What processes must be appreciated?
- What act of radical faith must be embraced?

Changing Your Mind:

We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ (2 Corinthians 10:5).
